SUNDAY SCHOOL PARADE.

18,000 Williamsburgh Children Reviewed by Mayor Wurster.

The forty-six schools embraced in the Eastern District Sunday School Association of Brooklyn paraded on Bedford avenue from the fountain at Division avenue to Flushing avens and returned yesterday. About 18,000 children and teachers in 111 schools and thousands of spectators lined both sides of the street. The grand stand was at the fountain. So great was the crowd at the starting point that none was stretched along the curb and forty policemen were necessary to keep the people from breaking in on the line of march. Every house along the route was decorated. Mayor Wurster, with other city officials, was on the reviewing stand.

H. H. Moore, Jr., Deputy Grand Marshal, some of the members of the Executive Committee, and others who have been in the parade in session in this city, participated in the parade. Among them were the Rev. Thomas Brasfield of the Central Presbyterian Church, Rev. Dr. C. E. Jones of the First Methodist Church; they were dismissed at the fountain.

Ammon had nothing to do with the death of Miss Bishop.

NEW YORK, June 4.—Medical Examiner White reports to the coroner the case of Miss S. M. Bishop, who died in Dr. Clarence Skinner's office about two days ago after suffering thirty-four consecutive hours that it entirely demonstrated the presence of Bright's disease of the kidneys, a diseased liver, and intense congestion of the lungs. She had used ammonium for headaches at intervals during the past two years. This had been poulticed upon her head, and she had been given ammonium showed no indication of its presence or action, and there was nothing in the symptoms or course of disease to indicate that the drug administered was directly or indirectly the cause of her death. Furthermore, there is no evidence that she had taken any of the drug for two years. A post-mortem examination and analysis of the stomach by Medical Examiner White also showed no traces of the drug.

A testimonial for the Prisoners' Friend, a committee of several leading citizens of Brooklyn has been organized to receive contributions for a testimonial for the Rev. Job G. Bass, the venerable chaplain of the jail, and particularly those who have been called "Prisoners' Friend." Captain Bass is now over 80 years old, and for nearly thirty years has devoted himself to the religious care of the convicts.
